Rev. Wm. Henry Strickland will preach in his pulpit on next Lord's Day, morning and evening. Subject of morning sermon, "The Temptation of Christ;" evening sermon, "The Devil."

Mr. T. Douglas Sloan, of Atlanta, Ga., spent last week in Pendleton and Anderson visiting relatives at those places. Mr. Sloan has many friends here who are always pleased to see him among us.

The town was full of country people on Monday, and we were reminded of some of the winter saledays of last winter. It was too wet to play in many places, and there was nothing to do at home.

The Town Council has authorized the police of the town to kill all dogs within the corporate limits on which taxes have not been paid, and several worthless curs have already been attended to.

The low-country people are turning their faces towards the up-country in quest of a cooler climate. They can find no more pleasant place at which to spend a few months during the summer than Anderson.

Court for this County convenes on next Monday, and according to law will hold but one week. There are only three or four cases on the criminal docket, and none of them are of any considerable importance.

The spring session of the Williamston Female College will close on Friday of next week. There will be two graduates at the end of this session, which will make a total of seven during the past scholastic year.

The Presbyterian ladies will have ice cream for sale in the Presbyterian Church lot on Friday at 6 p. m. The public generally, and the young men especially, are invited to patronize. You will get your money's worth.

Dr. R. A. Reid, who has been employed in the U. S. Army Service at Augusta, Ga., since March last, returned home on Saturday. His many friends were glad to see him, but expected he would come home all glistening in brass buttons.

Mr. Wm. M. Wilcox, of Elberton, Ga., spent Sunday and Monday in Anderson. He continues to enjoy a liberal patronage, and is building up a fine furniture trade at Elberton, a town that has wonderfully improved in the last year or two.

The young men in the Town Creek neighborhood have organized a base ball club with the following officers: President, J. O. Jones; Vice President, Austin Brown; Captain First Nine, Albie Hammond; Captain Second Nine, M. F. Gambrell.

The Anderson Theatrical Company are rehearsing the comic drama, "Mrs. Walthrop's Batchelors," and will play it in the Masonic Hall to-morrow evening. There are ten characters in the play, all of which will be well personated. Admission 50 and 25 cents.

Mr. R. D. Sloan, who has been the efficient Depot Agent of the G. & C. Railroad Company and telegraphic operator at Belton, has retired from the service of the Company, and is now in business with F. W. Poe & Co., at Greenville, S. C., where his many friends wish him abundant success.

At the meeting of Associate Grange No. 1, held at Town Creek on Saturday, the important matter before the meeting was the discussion of the cultivation of the field pea and the education and training of farmers' sons. The first named subject was ably discussed in elaborate essays by Messrs. D. H. Russell, John Brown and D. F. Crayton in the morning and the latter by Col. E. M. Rucker in the afternoon. The meeting was both pleasant and profitable to those present.

Judge J. P. Reed has been confined to his residence by illness for the past three or four weeks. His condition this week is somewhat improved, and his many friends throughout the County and State unite in the wish that his life may be spared many years yet, and that he may entirely recover from the malady that is wasting him away.

Mr. George W. Long is one of the most successful farmers in the County, and the man who beats him on a cotton crop will be entitled to a chronicle. He sent us on Monday four stalks of cotton averaging 13 inches in height and full of shapes, which were taken from a six acre field that will average nearly as good as the sample sent us.

Rev. R. W. Sanders, of Chester, spent Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday in Anderson, viewing the field to which he has been called as pastor by the Baptist Church before determining whether he will accept the call. He preached excellent sermons in the Baptist Church Sunday morning and evening to very large congregations.

There is some talk of independent candidates for the Legislature in Pickens County this year on account of dissatisfaction about the fence law, while one has already announced himself in Oconee. The organized Democracy of these Counties, however, will wipe the independents out so completely at the election that they will hardly realize they were ever candidates.

Belton is a very pleasant little town, and has got some mighty good people in it, but we do think it an outrage upon our civilization that passengers for the Columbia bound train from the Blue Ridge division of the Road are compelled to lie over there in the morning for more than two hours. It is unjust, unnecessary and reflects discredit upon the management of the Road.

Mr. David E. Frierson, son of Rev. Dr. Frierson, has just completed his course in theology at the Presbyterian Seminary at Columbia, and is now prepared to enter actively upon the work of the ministry. He is a most excellent young man, is highly cultured, and possesses qualities of head and heart that will win for him the love and confidence of any people with whom his lot may be cast.

After a nominating convention has completed its work, it is surprising how many people there are who will tell you that they knew from the outset, who the successful aspirant would be. In the case of the Chicago Convention, we have hardly found a man yet who did not know that Grant would be defeated, and that of all the other candidates they regarded Garfield as the most likely to receive the nomination.

At the meeting of the Palmetto Rifles on Thursday afternoon of last week the following officers were elected, viz.: John E. Allen, Captain; Dr. S. M. Orr, 1st Lieutenant; John O'Donnell, 2d Lieutenant; T. F. Hill, 3d Lieutenant; J. L. McGee, Orderly Sergeant. The Company will meet regularly every Tuesday evening in its armory. Lieut. J. G. Cunningham declined re-election and was made an honorary member.

The programme for the 4th annual meeting of the Sunday School Institute of the Saluda Baptist Association, which meets in the Baptist Church at Homea Path on the 15th July, has been issued, and embraces quite a variety of subjects. The previous meetings of the Institute have all been very pleasant, and have done a great deal of good in developing the Sunday school interests in this section. The meeting this year will doubtless be largely attended.

Mr. B. W. Wrenn, the General Ticket Agent of the Western & Atlantic Railroad, informs us that round trip tickets from Atlanta to Cincinnati, on the occasion of the National Democratic Convention, will be sold for $17.60. No arrangement for excursion rates over the Air Line Road have yet been made, but prominent citizens of Greenville and of this place are endeavoring to secure a reduction from the regular round trip rate from Greenville to Atlanta, which is $7.10.

Rev. James A. McLees, a graduate at the recent session of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary, at Columbia, from this County, has gone to Vienna, Louisiana, to take charge of a church at that place. Mr. McLees is a talented and accomplished young man, thoroughly consecrated to his work, and will doubtless make a useful and active minister of the Gospel. The prayers and well wishes of many friends in his native County for meritorious success in his labors attend him.

The picnic excursion to Piedmont to-day promises to be a grand success. From every indication yesterday several hundred persons will go, for whose comfort, pleasure and enjoyment ample arrangements have been made by the committee. The Palmetto Band will accompany the party, and by discoursing martial music contribute a great deal to the pleasures of the day. Messrs. H. G. Sunday and W. H. Frierson will deliver addresses at Piedmont on the subject of temperance, by invitation of the Division.

As the train was leaving the depot Monday afternoon for Belton the hind trucks of the rear passenger coach were thrown from the track by the carelessness of one of the trainmen in shifting the switch near the water-tank, but as the front coach was not off the rear coach was uncoupled from and the usual connection made at Belton with the Greenville bound train. Upon the return of the train to this place at 6 o'clock, however, it was delayed several hours, as the car had not been replaced on the track.

Any citizen of the State who lost an arm or leg while in service of the State during the late war between the States, and has not previously received an artificial limb from this or other States, or the United States, is entitled to the benefit of the act passed by the last regular session of the Legislature, and should send his name to W. E. Stoney, Secretary of the board to contract for and furnish artificial limbs, Columbia, S. C., on or before the 1st July, and suitable blanks will be forwarded. All soldiers in Anderson County who are entitled to the benefits of this act should forward their names at once.

We have received a copy of the premium list of the thirteenth annual fair of the Anderson Farmers' and Mechanics' Association, to be held October 20, 21 and 22. All of the premiums will be paid this year in money, except in the Manufacturers' Departments "A" and "B," for which certificates of merit will be given. The gate fees have been reduced to twenty-five cents, in addition to other changes and improvements on the old way of doing things. The list was printed in the book and job, copies of which can be obtained by calling on almost any of our merchants, or the Secretary of the Association, J. L. Tribble.

Selections from "Pinafore" will be rendered by accomplished amateurs at Pendleton on next Tuesday evening, the 15th inst., for the benefit of "St. Paul's Parish." The performance of Pinafore will be rendered in costume, and followed by an operetta. There will also be refreshments prepared by the ladies, and altogether the evening will be a most charming and entertaining one. Doors open at 7 p. m., and the performance begins at 8. Admission 25 cents. Reserved seats fifty cents. No half tickets.

The object is a worthy one, and with the attractive programme announced ought to command a large attendance and most liberal patronage.

Greenville Daily News: "The Anderson Intelligencer, a few days ago, took occasion to remind the News that it had not fulfilled its promise to reach Anderson every day in the morning. So far we have not. The railroads seem to be run with a special eye to our inconvenience. The News reaches Belton and Hodges in the morning, and lays all day within a few miles of Anderson and Abbeville awaiting the arrival of the up trains with the Charleston and Columbia mails. The train on the Blue Ridge branch passes Seneca City just so as to miss connection with the Air-Line, and shut us out from an outlet in that way. We cannot reach Spartanburg until late in the day, and by lack of connection are debarred from Union. Special arrangements are required in every direction, and they will be made. They require time to be gotten into working order however. But before many weeks the News will be the first daily paper seen in Greenville, Spartanburg, Union, Anderson and Abbeville."

A fendish negro named Joe Brier attempted to commit an outrage on a little white girl in Greenville County last week, during the absence of her parents from home, but owing to the presence of some smaller children in the house, whose assistance was summoned, he desisted his dastardly attempts and left the house. Upon the return of her parents the little girl made known the beastly attempts of the negro, and at once the father consulted with his neighbors, who formed a committee of fifteen to investigate the case and determine what action to take. After a full investigation a vote was taken as to what disposition should be made with the fiend, which stood seven for hanging and eight for allowing the law to take its course. The negro was accordingly taken to Greenville, and after a preliminary examination before a Trial Justice, was committed to jail in default of bail fixed at $1,000. The action of the committee who had the scamp in charge we think praiseworthy, taking every thing into consideration.

The essay on our fourth page, which was prepared for and read before the Associate Grange of this County by Col. W. S. Pickens, discusses a subject that is certainly entitled to the serious and favorable consideration of all our readers, and particularly of those who live in the country. There is nothing that contributes more to the general health and development of the people of this State than a free and judicious use of wholesome and nutritious fruit. It is the greatest of our luxuries and should be one of the most important items in the general make-up of our every-day diet the year round. Our Southern people, as a general rule, do not put a proper valuation on fruit, which is conclusively demonstrated by their almost universal neglect of its proper cultivation. We sincerely hope the essay will have the effect of causing our readers generally to think about the importance of the matter, if nothing more, and when that is done we do not doubt that more attention will be given to it. An orchard of fine fruits adds almost as much to the value of a farm as a good dwelling.

Townville.

The scramble of threshersmen for patronage is begun. An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Farmer died last week. Mr. J. A. Gaines is making some improvements on his residence in town. Mr. John Dyer died at Andersonville last week after a very brief illness. Every merchant in town has a brand new safe. It will be remembered that within the last few years several burglarious attempts have been made on the stores in this place. There were three interments in the space of a week at Double Springs recently—all white adults. Rev. E. F. Hyde, who has been absent in the lower part of the State for several months as chaplain for the American Bible Society, is on a visit to his family at Shadow Ford. Next Saturday, the 12th, is the regular meeting day of Fork Democratic Club, No. 1. Let every Democrat in the bounds of the Club turn out and enroll himself on the new list, or if he can't come let him send his name by some one who will. The Fork is full of Democrats, and they should fall into line at once. The Club meets but once a month, and every patriotic citizen should be willing to sacrifice at least one-fourth of his time, however valuable, to the perpetuation of the government of his choice. Shadow Ford post office will be renewed very shortly by the gentleman as post master. The Rev. L. M. Ayer preached a fine sermon in the Baptist Church at this place last Sunday morning from 2nd Cor. 5:21. He made a most favorable impression upon his hearers of every denomination, and they are anxious that his first visit among them shall not be his last. Mr. John Patterson died at her home at Max. all's Bridge on the 30th ult., after an illness of only ten minutes' duration. She was a daughter of John Caminade, deceased, of Pendleton, was not more than 40 years of age, and was the mother of seventeen children. D.

Fair Play Correspondence.

Mr. Editor: It has been so long since you have heard from me that I guess you have almost forgotten that I occasionally send you the little news items in our little "barg" and the surrounding community; however, you have not lost much, for to-day finds us just about the same that we were a month or so ago. The farmers are very busy, and have been for some time. The acreage in cotton exceeds last year's, at least twenty per cent., and the part of the crop that has been worked is looking very well. I am sorry to have to report that some of our farmers are in the grass, and the recent rains have not helped them to get rid of it. A short dry spell will put them all right, though. With the seasons we have had both cotton and corn are growing rapidly. The latter for some time past has not been looking well in places, a fact for which I cannot account. The bottom corn suffered some from the rains of June 1st. If there are no drawbacks to the crops they will make a handsome yield next Fall. From this time until the middle of July is the critical time with the farmers as regards seasons, and of course a drought would be very disastrous to them. At any rate, let us look at the bright side of the picture, and hope for the best. The farmers deserve a good season for their cotton and corn in order to make up for the loss sustained by the failure of the wheat crop, which is very poor. In places it is hardly worth harvesting. The average yield can hardly reach five bushels per acre, and the probability is that it will fall far short of five. The oats, too, are very poor. They, like the wheat, have suffered from the rust. The partial failure of the oat crop will be very detrimental to a number of our farmers, who have been depending on it to help them through the summer. Salt has been tried here as an antidote to rust, but I have not heard from the parties as to its results. Our merchants appear to be getting on very well, I hear no grumbling from them, but, on the contrary, I think they are hopeful for the future. The political world of Fair Play is quiet. There is too much work just now, I guess. For the people to think about politics, besides Oconee is largely Democratic, and we can afford to be quiet. Oconee will roll up a handsome Democratic majority this Fall for the Congressional nominee of the State officers.

The friends of the Fair Play and Westminster R. R. are determined to finish the Road. Over half of the money has already been subscribed here, with Westminster yet to hear from. As I mentioned before, it is not calculated that this point will be the terminus of the Road, but that it shall be extended to Andersonville, which nearly every body knows is situated at the confluence of the Seneca and Tugaloo Rivers.

The next session of the Fair Play High School will commence on the first Monday in July, when it is expected that the attendance will be as large as ever. Mr. Durham, living in the Fork, Anderson County, reports that a negro boy, aged 10 years, looted and thinned out three and a quarter acres of cotton on his place in two days, and he did his work so well that Mr. Durham paid him fifty cents extra. This is no Texas tale. C.

A Card from Mr. A. R. Campbell. Mr. Editor: My attention is called to the report in the INTELLIGENCER of the difficulty which occurred at Belton on the 24th ultimo, between Lewis, Moorehead and myself, in which you say it originated from disrespectful language I had used about some ladies and attributed the same to Lewis. In justice to myself I desire to state that the cause of the difficulty was not from any disrespectful language used about any lady or ladies nor about Lewis or Moorehead, as several persons fully acquainted with all the facts well known.

The balance of the report is equally incorrect, as will be fully shown at the proper time and place. A. R. CAMPBELL. Belton, S. C., June 2, '80.
